

February 4, 2010

The Weekend to Remember from Family Life is being held at the Tamaya Resort February 12-14th. Dewey Moede, Manager of KKIM and his wife attended last year and Dewey talked about the impact it made on him, his marriage and his family. Doug Scarborough, The Weekend to Remember Field Ministry Representative said that he and his wife attended before they got married and how it helped them be prepared when tragedy struck their family. Marty Autry talked about how he and his wife were at a crossroads in their marriage and after attending the conference their marriage was restored.